Dear Parishioners,

Happy Mother's Day! To all mothers, grandmothers, godmothers, and any women who embody motherly attributes, all our Religious Sisters, single parents' etc, thank you for who you are and all you do for us. You make the world a joyful, loving place, even amidst this pandemic, your love and dedication truly commendable. You bring God alive! Let's celebrate motherhood

During little sufferings pray by making the invocation, "Mary!" and tell her you want it all to serve whatever intentions are most acceptable to her. Thus you put your sufferings like a chisel in the hands of a master sculptor. – St. Maximilan Kolbe

Mother Mary gave Birth to a loving Saviour and Redeemer, as Catholics to make Jesus Christ incarnate in our lives, by our faith, good actions, and wisdom, we are also called to make the Blessed Mother present. Mary can be alive in each of us. We see these particularly in mothers. Mary is present in mothers.

I'm sure Jesus tripped and hurt himself as an infant. Mary tended to him. She showed compassion and helped him heal. She was also by his side as he carried the cross through Jerusalem. Mothers, likewise, take care of their children; helping them heal and comforting them when hurt.

Mary receives credit for Jesus' first miracle—the Wedding Feast of Cana. She indicated to her son that they had run out of wine, and so our Lord responded. She "drew out" of Jesus his true self. She inspired him to perform a divine action. Our mothers likewise inspire and compel us to good actions that make us the best version of ourselves.

For me, as I have already shared with some in our Parish, I'm my Mum's Boy; truly I'm going to miss her on this Mother's Day!! She was a driving Force in my life and unfailing Air Under my wings, who taught me to face challenges and defeats. She shaped me a Man!! I'm proud of my Mum, as she celebrated her birthday yesterday. I feel the same of each and every Mum in the world

Be assured of my prayers for all of you and I shall remember and pray for all on Sunday during my Holy Eucharist.

With sincere Thanks to Motherhood,

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Fr. Joseph Figurado

REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSA

The boundlessness of God's love is seen in the fact that God loved us even before we were deserving of God's love. In fact, it was God's love that made us able both to receive and to give love in return. Love is of God; love is God. Divine love is constant and trustworthy. How easily we can think this thought or speak these words, yet how difficult, even impossible, it is to comprehend what it means. We can only really recognise love in its many concrete manifestations. Love is patient, kind and forbearing; it believes, it hopes, it endures. The love of God breaks down the barriers between Gentile and Jew, between slave and free, between the poor and the prosperous, between women and men, between the healthy and the ailing, between young and old.

Embraced by such love we are gradually transformed. We begin to recognise God's love in places we never suspected it would be found. We discover that what we once judged unclean may merely be an unfamiliar openness to God's truth. We discover that our own insistence on legitimate religious practice may really be spiritual elitism. Our eyes are opened to ways we have tried to confine God's love to the conventional boundaries we ourselves have set. As we are drawn into God's love, we eagerly embrace the commandments that help us to live righteous lives. To the extent that we love as universally as God does, we will know that we live in God and that God lives in us.

THE MONTH OF MAY is the "month which the piety of the faithful has especially dedicated to Our Blessed Lady," and it is the occasion for a "moving tribute of faith and love which Catholics in every part of the world [pay] to the Queen of Heaven. During this month Christians, both in church and in the privacy of the home, offer up to Mary from their hearts an especially fervent and loving homage of prayer and veneration. In this month, too, the benefits of God's mercy come down to us from her throne in greater abundance"

This Christian custom of dedicating the month of May to the Blessed Virgin arose at the end of the 13th century. In this way, the Church was able to Christianize the secular feasts which were wont to take place at that time. In the 16th century, books appeared and fostered this devotion.

You are encouraged to pray the rosary with your families and children.

Our Parish Notices

Catholic Schools across Maitland-Newcastle celebrated CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK 2021 from May 3 – 9.

Catholic Schools Week is an opportunity for Catholic schools to showcase what they do best – high quality learning and teaching within a caring and supportive Catholic community.

This year the theme is Faith in the future which has a strong focus on strengthening relationships between students and their Catholic faith by ensuring that all students - with support from family, teachers and parish communities - have every opportunity of realising their future potential.

Enrolments are now open for 2022—please contact your School Office for details.

THANK YOU

Project Compassion: Thank you for supporting Caritas Australia's Project Compassion Campaign. Your generosity will work for the freedom of those living in poverty, challenge unjust structures, and empower people to work for a sustainable way of life. To date we received $3338.40. If you have any boxes at home, please return them as soon as possible.

Please wait to clean the pews/seating until Mass has finished with singing of the last hymn, recessional procession and exit of presiding priest. A sign of respect to wait until Mass officially is ended.

Fr Joseph

Parish Finance Committee will meet this Tuesday, 11 May, 4.00pm at Kotara.

National Volunteers Week 17 – 23 May: to recognise our volunteers, a Movie Night will be held on Thursday, 20 May, 5.30pm at Event Cinemas Kotara. Please join us for this viewing of the Australian film, 'June Again'. Catering will be provided. Please RSVP by this Friday, 14 May by emailing volunteers@mn.catholic.org.au or P 4979 1384.

6th Sunday of Easter - Year B

FIRST READING Acts 10:25-26. 34-35. 44-48

As Peter reached the house Cornelius went out to meet him, knelt at his feet and prostrated himself. But Peter helped him up. 'Stand up,' he said, 'I am only a man after all!'

Then Peter addressed them: 'The truth I have now come to realise' he said, 'is that God does not have favourites, but that anybody of any nationality who fears God and does what is right is acceptable to him.'

While Peter was still speaking the Holy Spirit came down on all the listeners. Jewish believers who had accompanied Peter were all astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit should be poured out on the pagans too, since they could hear them speaking strange languages and proclaiming the greatness of God. Peter himself then said, 'Could anyone refuse the water of baptism to these people, now they have received the Holy Spirit just as much as we have?' He then gave orders for them to be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ. Afterwards they begged him to stay on for some days.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 97:1-4. R. see v.2

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

1. Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders.

His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation.

2. The Lord has made known his salvation; has shown his justice to the nations. He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel.

3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Shout to the Lord all the earth, ring out your joy.

SECOND READING 1 Jn 4:7-10

My dear people,
let us love one another
since love comes from God and everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God.
Anyone who fails to love can never have known God,
because God is love.
God's love for us was revealed
when God sent into the world his only Son
so that we could have life through him;
this is the love I mean:

not our love for God,
but God's love for us when he sent his Son to be the sacrifice that takes our sins away.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Jn 14:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words,
and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL Jn 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples:

'As the Father has loved me,
so I have loved you.

Remain in my love.

If you keep my commandments
you will remain in my love,
just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

I have told you this

so that my own joy may be in you and your joy be complete.

This is my commandment:

love one another,

as I have loved you.

A man can have no greater love
than to lay down his life for his friends.

You are my friends,

if you do what I command you,

I shall not call you servants any more,

because a servant does not know
his master's business;

I call you friends,

because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

You did not choose me,

no, I chose you;

and I commissioned you

to go out and to bear fruit,

fruit that will last;

and then the Father will give you anything you ask him in my name.

What I command you

is to love one another.'

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
And on earth peace to people of good will

We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,

Lord God, heavenly King,

O God, almighty Father

Lord Jesus Christ,

Only begotten Son,

Lord God, Lamb of God,

Son of the Father

You take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

You take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer

You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,

You alone are the Lord,

You alone are the most high

Jesus Christ, With the Holy Spirit,

In the glory of God the Father.

Amen

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,

the Father almighty,

Creator of heaven and earth,

and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,

was crucified, died and was buried;

he descended into hell;

on the third day he rose again

from the dead;

he ascended into heaven,

and is seated at the right hand of God

the Father almighty;

from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and life everlasting. Amen.
